General Information

Short summary

This French company provides sports equipment for advertisers. They have started with sport balls but have expanded their offer to include various sports article (sport jersey, caps, scarves, bags, fanny packs etc.). As they are putting emphasis on sustainability, they are looking for a new supplier that can provide 100-10 000 caps entirely manufactured in Europe.

Full description

They are a French company that provides sports equipment for advertisers. They have started with sport balls but are now expanding their offer to include various sports articles (sport jersey, caps, scarves, bags, fanny packs etc.). They now sells about 50,000 balls a year, and up to 10,000 sport articles per year. As they have more and more request of more local and sustainable products, the company increases its commitment to find quality products manufactured in Europe and made with recycled materials.

They are looking for a new supplier that can provide 100 to 10 000 caps (depending on the needs of the clients) entirely manufactured in Europe. This manufacturer should be able to combine competitive prices (as the market of personalized objects is very cost-sensitive) and quality in the product and the service associated. The manufacturer should be able to provide labels guaranteeing the origin of the products, if asked by some of the clients.

Ideally, having a basic price for the caps (according to the basic needs, such as quality, material, color, etc.) and then adding different options to customize or personalize the caps according to the needs (closure, visor, type of personalization needed, etc.).
